

20th September, 2021

My Dear LSPS Students,

WELCOME BACK!

It has been a great pleasure seeing you all in campus. I can see that many of you have been settling well in the new academic year. We very much hope to resume full day classes together as well as after school interest classes, but it will depend on the updated guidelines from the Education Bureau. In the meantime, remember to maintain social distancing measures. We will continue to follow closely all Centre for Health Protection and EDB guidelines to ensure everyone's safety.

Do remember to set some goals if you haven't done so yet. I talked about this during the Open Assembly. I would also like to hear from you about your goals, school life, family, etc. You are welcome to share anything with me. Please write and put the letter in the letter box outside the School Office.

Opening Assembly 3rd September, 2021

The Opening Assembly was held with P.1 and P.4 students in the School Hall and other grades watched the live broadcast in the classrooms. We welcome all new staff who have joined our Lasallian family. Have you met them yet?

Opening Liturgy 10th September, 2021

We were delighted to have Father Tito Lopez Martin (Church of St. Benedict) to celebrate the School Opening liturgy with us. P.3 & P.6 students joined us in the School Hall and other grades watched the live broadcast.

Head Prefect Inauguration

We are delighted to announce two students as our Head Prefects this year:

6B Trevor Chak
6F Matthew Hui

Happy 90th Birthday

From all of us here at La Salle Primary School, we would like to wish a very happy birthday to La Salle College (LSC). The celebrations started off with a Kick-off Ceremony on the 10th September, 2021. Br. Thomas Lavin (Supervisor of LSC) and Mr. Tong Wun Sing (Principal of LSC) gave marvellous speeches. Can you see two Brothers on screen at the bottom right picture? They were Br. Aimar and Br. Cassian who were both instrumental in the early development of LSC.

I am pinning anniversary badges to the Form 1 class representatives. A few of them are from LSPS.

Mid-Autumn Festival

My English and Chinese names are related to the moon. Every year, I get very excited when the Mid-Autumn Festival approaches. It is my favourite Chinese festival. I buy colourful paper lanterns and place them around the house as decoration. I make sure to buy those that are battery operated as it is much safer and I can reuse the lanterns. I have mooncakes ready. On the actual day of the festival, I always make sure to spend some quiet time late in the evening to look at the moon and 'talk' to it. I have always been fascinated by the traditional stories of the Moon Goddess Cheng'e and the Jade Rabbit. On the following page, you will find two poems about the Mid-Autumn Festival.

Poetry

ON THE MOON FESTIVAL

By Grace Lin

I am allowed to play
Outside tonight
Climb and slide and
SWING
Higher
Higher
I will knock on the moon
And the Moon Lady will say
Yes, tonight
The rabbit can come out to play

《月光光》黃慶雲

月光光，月當頭，
八月十五是中秋，
帶盞花燈街上遊，
我的花貓雄
你的白鼠賽雪球。
我和你，手拉手，
貓兒和老鼠，也成了朋友。

Can you write your own poem about the moon? Please send it to me as a letter. I will select some entries and put them on the 1st floor display board near the School Office.

Here is a prayer I would like to share with all of you:

Prayer for a New School Year

Dear Lord, as we begin this new school year,
we gather once again as your community of believers.

We thank you for the energy and the spirit that you renewed in us through the summer months.

We thank you for the time to enjoy our family and friends
and to reflect on what is important in our lives.

Let this year be marked by enthusiasm and love so that,
with the inspiration of your Spirit,
we may continue to grow in our faith.

Help us to fulfil your hope for us with honest intentions and works of faith.

Let us be gentle with ourselves
And bring laughter, joy, and love to others.

We ask this in your name. Amen.

St. John Baptist de la Salle,

Pray for us.

Live Jesus in our hearts,

Forever!

HAPPY MID-AUTUMN FESTIVAL!
